

MOFC POSITION STATEMENT ON SB-727

Many people have asked MOFC's opinion of SB-727, a bill we did not draft.

While pg. 85, line 1 may be alarming to homeschooling parents who own firearms, we do not believe that concern is merited.

RSMo 571.030, which bans guns on school property, has always been interpreted to be applicable to public schools with its references to 'school buses,' 'school officials,' and 'district school boards.' SB-727 doesn't change that.

Should some Leftist prosecutor try to test the limits of this statute, he would run into Art 1, Sec. 23 of the state Constitution and SCOTUS precedent. We believe claims that the courts will suddenly agree to ban guns in homeschool situations are not substantial.
